Re: United States v. Norman Seabrook
16-cr-467 (AJH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

I write as a followup to my receipt of a November 30, 2020 letter by former U.S. Attorney David Kelley of the Dechert Law Firm, which Assistant U.S. Attorney Martin Bell has provided to me. Please clarify if the case of Defendant Norman Seabrook and that of his co-defendant Murray Huberfeld was transferred to Judge Lewis J. Liman.

To the extent that the case may have been sent either to a Judicial Case Reassignment Committee (or Chief Judge Colleen McMahon), I respectfully request any written request which the Court may have made to either the Committee, or Chief Judge McMahon.

I am requesting same because I have an application under Rule 41 for the return of seized property (which I hope to file later this month), and wish to do and be made returnable before the correct judge, pursuant to their Court Rules.

I will await your response.

Very truly yours,

Roger Bennet Adler
Attorney for Defendant Norman Seabrook
